Agenda-3 To obtain approval for creation of new faculty posts in CTCL & allocation of specialization in existing sanctioned post RESOLUTION	* In addition to the sanctioned posts, appointment of three faculty (Assistant Professor) members purely from Law background. BoS Member after detail discussion on the issues, suggested following : A. CTCL is already having one faculty member from Law background. In addition to it, it is suggested that two posts from the Law background be allocated in the existing sanctioned posts. Consideration of their specialization in Tribal Rights must be adhered. B. Further it is suggested to the University that it must sanction two posts in addition to existing strength of seven. Preferred area of specialization being Law/ Tribal Law & Governance/ Anthropology/ Sociology with focus on Tribal Rights / Issues.
Agenda-4 The Centre intends to include two Elective Papers in the MA/LLM Syllabus RESOLUTION	To attract foreign students to pursue MA/LLM. Course in CTCL, CUJ, the Centre intends to include two elective papers; one centres on African Customary Law and another one on Customary laws of Underdeveloped Asian Countries. The BoS members appreciated this initiative and suggested to CTCL faculty members to consult experts having specialization in the above mentioned areas. Thereafter, the CTCL faculty members shall develop the syllabus and present the same in next School Board Meeting.
Agenda- 5 Request for support staff RESOLUTION	The Faculty members are over burdened with non-teaching assignments. BoS members suggested to the University to create two posts : a. One Office Assistant b. One Office Attendant
