ABOUT THE SEMINAR

India has addressed the COVID-19 issue with tenacity and self-reliance. India has proved how it rises to problems and capitalizes on opportunities, as evidenced by the repurposing of car manufacturing firms to collaborate on the development of life-saving ventilators and from zero production of Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) kits before March 2020, India now has a daily capacity of 2 lakh PPE kits, which is continuously increasing.

Thus throughout the entire phase of lock and unlock, India has exhibited its resilience. Hon'ble Prime Minister's clarion call to exploit these challenging times to become Atmanirbhar (self-sufficient) has been well embraced, allowing the Indian economy to resurge. The self-reliance drive will condense the outside dependency while increasing global competitiveness at the same time. The Atmanirbhar Bharat Abhiyan primarily focuses on Economy, Infrastructure, Systems, Vibrant Demography and Demand.

In this backdrop, the Department of Commerce and Financial Studies (DCFS) at the Central University of Jharkhand, proposes to organize 2-days National Seminar on the theme "Atmanirbhar Bharat: Building Resilience, Sustainability and Global Competitiveness". The proposed seminar will deliberate upon pertinent issues in the context of self-reliant India. It will offer suggestive course of action in terms of policy & planning by eminent academicians and industry practitioners which will not only be beneficial for academia and research but also be worth noting for the policymakers.

Objectives

- To enable the participants to deliberate on the challenges posed by the pandemic and policy Initiatives.
- To discuss the existing issues, challenges towards self-reliant India and its impact on business sustainability.
- To deliberate upon potentials and opportunities towards global competitiveness through self-reliant India drive.
- To provide academicians and practitioners a platform to discuss and recommend policy initiatives.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE SEMINAR

- Pre seminar Workshop on Advance Research Methodology and Data Analysis.
- Director's Panel Discussion on NEP-2020.
- Networking Opportunities.
- Publication opportunities in special issues of Scopus indexed journals/UGC Care Journals and Edited Book by international publishers.

PUBLICATION OPPURTUNITIES

Selected paper will be published in Scopus indexed journals/UGC-Care Journals/Edited Book by international publishers. Papers will be accepted for publishing only after satisfying the guidelines and plagiarism norms stipulated by the concerned journals. Processing fees shall be borne by the authors.
