Respected Sir/Mam,

Subject: - Invitation for participation in “Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar National Youth Parliament, 2021”: The Voice of Young India scheduled from 14th – 15th October 2021.

Chandigarh University is one of the leading private educational institutions in India with NAAC A+ grade and QS I- Gauge 2020 Diamond rating. Named as Asia’s one of the fastest-growing universities, we have MOUs with more than 250 international universities and students from over 55 nations. Chandigarh University continuously supports research programmes that are crucial in propelling sustainable means of living through technology and innovation, and is India’s only university that has filed for more than 1000 patents. In 2021 we entered new frontiers by launching the CU-SAT Programme on Satellite System Design and Building.

Amongst its variegated objectives, Chandigarh University aims to provide an outstanding platform where students from various universities and colleges gather and share their valuable perspectives on current scenarios as well as to develop democratic ethos in the younger generation. With this aim Chandigarh University, under the literary club “Abhivyakti” is going to organize the “Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar National Youth Parliament, 2021”: The Voice of Young India from 14th – 15th October 2021.

While the world faces the COVID-19 pandemic, Chandigarh University humbly initiates a wave of solidarity by organizing the “Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar National Youth Parliament, 2021”: The Voice of Young India. So, we invite the students of your prestigious Institution to be a part of this prodigious Virtual competition. Participation by your esteemed Institution/University stands of key importance. This turns out to be a great platform for students to polish their skills and showcase their talents. With attractive prizes, this event proves to be one of the most prominent events hosted by Chandigarh University.

The e-Brochure of the competition is attached in the mail.
