Dear Vice Chancellor/Director

Greetings from AIU!

It gives me immense pleasure to inform that United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO) has invited nominations for UNESCO-Equatorial Guinea International Prize for Research in Life Sciences. The objective of the Prize is to promote research in life sciences and reward projects, activities, individuals, Institutions or non-governmental organisations working in the field of Life Sciences leading to improving the quality of human life.

Applications may be submitted by Researchers through the Indian National Commission to UNESCO through online following the link: www.unesco.org/egip/account-request. The last date for submission of applications to UNESCO is December 20, 2020. Since, the applications are required to be channelised/forwarded through Indian National Commission (INC) for Cooperation with UNESCO, the INC has fixed the last date of receiving the application by December 10, 2020.

The details about the Prize and procedure of applying for the same can be accessed from the weblink <http://en.unesco.org/stem/lifesciences-prize>. The Brochure containing the detailed information can also be browsed from AIU website: www.aiu.ac.in. For any further clarification the aspiring Researchers/Nominees may write to the Secretariate of the Prize through e-mail ID: lifescienceprize@unesco.org.

The member universities/ institutions of AIU are requested to circulate the information in their respective institutions for wider dissemination and encouraging the researchers to send their nominations for the prize.

With regards

Yours sincerely

Pankaj Mittal
