The Vice Chancellor, Prof. D. T. Khathing, warmly welcomed the members present in the 9th meeting of the Academic Council. He expressed his deep gratitude for their coming from different parts of the country personally to advise the University in its endeavour to create a centre of Excellence. He gave a brief introduction on the Agenda items, highlighting the Annual Report as the main Agenda.

The Vice Chancellor also highlighted some of the recent academic achievements. These included the month long attachment with the Centre of Life Sciences of a Scientist, Dr. Hamdino M.I. Ahmad, from Egypt, under the DST sponsored CV Raman International Fellowship for African Researchers; the sanction of two UGC major Research Projects in English have been received – one to Professor B.P. Sinha, titled “Multicultural Response to Lost Tradition with Special Reference to Tribal Literature in Jharkhand” and another to Dr. Sandeep Kumar Yadav titled “Abrogating ‘Authenticity’ with a Difference: Indian Poetry in English since 1980-2000”; CUJ has been included as Associate Partner of “Erasmus Mundus Action 2” where 8 (eight) European Union Universities and 10 (ten) Universities from India are establishing a consortium (Ghent University of Belgium is coordinating); with the exit option in CUJ after the 3rd year, two of our students have been admitted into prestigious institutions for their post graduate studies – Mr. Raman Gupta of the Centre of Applied Mathematics has successfully been admitted to the Integrated Ph.D. Programme of TIFR Center for Applied Mathematics, Bangalore and Mr. Jami Amaresh of the Centre of Business Administration has been admitted to Dublin City University, Ireland for a PGDM Programme; Dr. Rabindra Nath Sharma of Centre of Indigenous Culture has been invited as an Visiting Faculty for two months by the Department of Estonia and Comparative Folklore University of Tartu, Estonia.

The University has also progressed successfully in its endeavour to network and establish collaborative programmes with foreign Universities. In today’s agenda, at least four MoUs are being placed for consideration. All students of Mass Communication and Business Administration have found good placement for Internship in different parts of the country and with well known organizations & companies.

The Academic Council recorded its words of appreciation for the excellent academic and administrative work done by the University during last three years.

Thereafter, the Agenda was taken up.
